

The Accountable Case Manager

Table of Contents

Foreword by Dr. Margaret J. Washnitzer

Foreword by John Wilson

How to Use the Book—Internet Edition

Introduction

- Background
- Purpose of the Book
- How It Was Developed
- Who Can Use the Book
- How to Use the Book
- About The Center for Applied Management Practices, Inc.
- About the Authors
- Acknowledgments

Chapter One: A Definition of Self-Sufficiency for Community Action

- Learning Objectives
- The Mission of Community Action
- What Are the Poverty Thresholds? How Were They Developed?
- CSBG Supports the CAAs Self-Sufficiency Mission
- Eligibility and Self-Sufficiency
- Economic and Non-Economic Indicators of Self-Sufficiency
- Organization of Community Action Agencies
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Two: Overview of Case Management in Community Action

- Learning Objectives
- What is Case Management?
- Responsibilities of Case Managers
- Five Factors That Shape the Case Management Environment
- Skills of an Effective Case Manager
- Characteristics of Families or Persons in Case Management
- Case Management Models
- Seven Activities for Effective Case Management
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Three: Intake for Case Management or Direct Services

- Learning Objectives
- Intake
- Intake Interview Issues
- Common Intake Process
- ©Carter-Richmond Methodology™
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Four: Pre-Assessment for Case Management or Direct Services

- Learning Objectives
- Pre-Assessment
- Sample Pre-Assessment Tool to Determine Need For Case Management
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Five: Comprehensive Assessment for Case Management or Direct Services

- Learning Objectives
- Comprehensive Assessment
- Assignment of Clients to Case Management or Direct Services
- Sample Comprehensive Housing Assessment

Tables

- Table 1—2006 Federal Poverty Guidelines
- Table 2—2006 Federal Poverty Guidelines With Wage Calculations
- Table 3—Sample Programs and Income Eligibility for Low-Income Persons
- Table 4—Organization of Community Action Agencies
- Table 5—Becoming an Effective Case Manager
- Table 6—Case Management Models
- Table 7—Seven Activities for Effective Case Management
- Table 8—Summary Assessment—Change in Well-Being

Illustrations

Seven Activities for Effective Case Management

- Sample Computer Intake Form
- Individual Program Intake
- Common Intake
- Sample Computer Case Planning Form, Part 1
- Sample Computer Case Planning Form, Part 2
- Individual Goal and Evaluation Form

Charts

- Sample Pre-Assessment Tool to Determine Need for Case Management
- Sample Comprehensive Housing Assessment
- Sample Comprehensive Child Care and Education Assessments
- Sample Housing Scale and Score Sheet
- Sample Family Outcome Matrix
- ROMA Logic Model 2.0B
- Sample Housing Logic Model—Family
- Sample Client Satisfaction Survey

Continued--

- A Digression: Information and Referral in Community Action and the Importance of Documentation and Results
- Sample Comprehensive Education and Childcare Assessments
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Six: Comprehensive Assessment and Accountability for Case Management or Direct Services—Using an Outcome Scale or Outcome Matrix

- Learning Objectives
- Review
- What is an Outcome Scale?
- Using an Outcome Scale
- Sample Comprehensive Housing Assessment
- Sample Housing Scale and Score Sheet
- Working With the Client to Administer a Comprehensive Case Management Assessment
- Use of the Outcome Scale for Client Management
- Reporting Outcomes Using an Outcome Scale
- Using the Outcome Scale or Outcome Matrix in Case Management
- How to Interpret the Sample Family Outcome Matrix
- Sample Family Outcome Matrix
- Descriptive Analysis of the Family Outcome Matrix
- Rules of Thumb for Case Management
- Exercise—Analysis of the Family Outcome Matrix
- Using Analysis of the Outcome Matrix to Support Case Management, Need Assessment and Agency Management
- What is the eLogic Model™?
- Using the eLogic Model™ for Case Management
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Seven: Case Management Planning

- Learning Objectives
- Develop a Case Plan or Action Plan for the Family
- Develop a Plan and Write Measurable Goals and Objectives Using Outcomes and Indicators
- A Digression: Consider Making the Plan a Contract Between the Agency and the Client
- Implement the Plan
- Evaluate and Measure Progress
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions

Chapter Eight: Case Scenario, Case Management Exercises

- Learning Objectives
- Scenario for Case Management
- Exercise One—Strengths and Needs
- Exercise Two—Plan of Action, Implementation, and Followup
- Exercise Three—Goals and Objectives
- Answers for Exercise One—Strengths and Needs
- Answers for Exercise Two—Plan of Action, Implementation, and Followup
- Answers for Exercise Three—Goals and Objectives

Chapter Nine: Developing Discharge Criteria and Closing the Case

- Why is a Discharge Event or Closing a Case Important?
- A Digression: The Difference Between Discharge Criteria and Closing a Case
- What are Discharge Criteria?
- Types of Discharge Criteria
- Discharge Criteria for the Case Management Program
- Program Discharge Criteria
- Family or Individual Discharge Criteria
- Preparing for Discharge
- Conducting the Discharge Event
- Followup
- Key Terms Identified in the Chapter
- Discussion Questions